This paper is devoted to the question of a subcorpus of copies of Old Russian Parimeynik. This subcorpus includes the Troitsky parimeynik of the second part of 14th century. The paleography, graphics, phonetics, grammar and textology of this text are investigated. Soon we plan the complex research on and creation of an Internet edition of the Zakhariinsky parimeynik of 1271. This work will reveal the consistent development of the Old Russian language and its linguo-geographic stratification.
