

Íáííáðáâÿ øêîèà â Äðááíáì Ííâãîðíáâ

Ááóíð Áíáóà Íééíéíáâ
07.09.2014 á.

This paper concerns the Old Russian Cyrillic orthographic system that used only one yer letter, not "standard" orthographical rules. This system existed in birch-bark documents in Old Novgorod from the mid-12th to the late 14th century, has constant characteristics and can be defined as The Old Novgorod orthographic system with a single yer.

nikolovaan_elmanuscript2014 (752.05 kB)