

Íĩeñàòáeáĩ àlàèèç íà ðæíĩñeàâyĩñeîòî ñòàðĩĩá÷àòíĩ èçääàíeá îò 1520 ã. Nĩáĩðíeê çà iúòíeöè

Ááòíð Íáòý Nèáá÷ááá
07.09.2014 ã.

This paper presents an archeographic description of the book Collection for Travelers, which was printed for the first time in Venice by the Montenegrin Bozidar Vukovic in 1520. It is a collection of texts with religious themes serving as essential reading for every Orthodox Christian. The language is a Resavian version of Middle Bulgarian. This written record is one of the old and rare books protected by the Cultural Heritage Act of Serbia.

slavcheva_elmanuscript2014 (797.23 kB)