

Ãääå çàêàí÷èâàëñÿ Íà÷àëüíûé ñâïä?

Àâòîð Äìèòðèé Àíàòîëüââè÷ Äíáðîâîëüñêèé
07.09.2014 á.

A.A. Shakhmatov's

hypothesis of the so-called Na alnyj Svod is one of the most important achievements in the study of Old Rus' chronicles. However, it remains a challenging task to reconstruct the text of this Svod, and—in particular—to determine where it ended. This article discusses the evidence demonstrating and disproving that the Na alnyj Svod ended with the story on the blinding of prince Vasilko of Terebovl'.

dobrovolsky_elmanuscript2014 \(727.43 kB\)