

The Maria Sklodowska Curie Project Initial Training Network (ITN) on Digital Cultural Heritage (DCH)

Àâôið Kevin S. Hawkins
17.03.2017 ä.
İñēāāīāā İāñīāēāíēā 17.03.2017 ä.

The EU FP7 PEOPLE (Marie-Curie Fellowship) – Initial Training Network on Digital Cultural Heritage project (www.itn-dch.eu) is coming to an end and it is organizing a unique conference in the domain of Digital Cultural Heritage.

The event aims to present the final results of the project and to bring together experts, stakeholders, policy makers and leaders from the domain, addressing the current challenges in the field and starting a dialogue that will lay the foundation for the creation of a multidisciplinary community in this particular field.

To find out more details, please visit our webpage and have a look on the call for extended abstracts:<http://www.digitalheritage2017.eu/>

The conference will be held in one of the most beautiful areas in the center of Europe in Olimje, Slovenia:
<http://www.term-olimia.com>

Important dates:

Abstract submission deadline: 24th March 2017

Notification of acceptance: 10th April 2017

Registration deadline: 1st May 2017

Conference: 23rd -25th May 2017

Proceedings/Publications:

Authors of all the accepted abstracts will be invited to submit a full paper by 1st August 2017 which will be published by

Springer-Nature in the LNCS proceedings (<https://www.springer.com/gp/computer-science/lncs>)